Domestic and Family Violence Response Training

1-Day focused workshop:

Men who Use Violence

For Frontline Workers

About 1-Day focused workshops

Attend our 1-day workshops to grow your knowledge of the complexities and nuances of domestic and family violence within different contexts.

Learners attending these workshops need to have previously attended any 2-day DV-alert workshops.

About Men who Use Violence

- Assist people who encounter instances of males who use violence in their capacity as frontline workers
- Select approaches that lower the risk these men present to their partners and children
- Avoid actions which may raise the levels of danger these men may present to their partners and children

Enhance your skills with other 1-day focused workshops

There are a range of 1-day workshops available that you can attend to enhance your knowledge and skills, including:

- Engaging with Interpreters
- First Nations
- Gendered Violence in Diverse Communities
- Multicultural
- Women with Disability.

Nationally recognised training

Once each of the components has been completed, you can enrol in the Assessment session. After successful completion of the assessments, you will achieve a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment for the unit of competency CHCDFV001 Recognise and respond appropriately to domestic and family violence.
